

Further information regarding our group menus:

- Any reservation or cancellation must be send by fax or e-mail.
- We require that the travel guide confirms by phoneto the restaurant, at least 24 hours in advance the exact number of the persons attending and the time of arrival.
- The travel guide must specify if there are any food allergy sufferers among the group when confirming arrival to the restaurant. Be certain that we will pay our full attention to those requests and that we will be extremely vigilant.
- We offer free of charge: the meal for the travel guide and the bus driver (minimum of 50persons).
- We prefer payments made by credit card (VISA or MASTERCARD); however, any other method can be negotiated beforehand.
- Group members must arrive together and not separately.
- It is possible to have vegetarian meals or modify menus at additional charge.
- For all alcoholic drinks paid and drank by the customer, taxes and service are included, see posted prices (except for wine bottles, taxes and service are notincluded).
- Upon the arrival, the travel guide must specify the speed of the service,if a faster or slower pace is required.
- Your comments and suggestions will be greatly appreciated.
- Our regular menu is also available for groups. Please contact the restaurant beforehand to make arrangements.
- Prices are subject to change without prior notice.